Summertime Prayer

Dear Lord,

thank you for this summer season.

During this time, may we remember the gift of the world you have given us.

For a while each summer of our lives is different.

It is their similarities that bring joyful anticipation.

For you, there is no beginning or end, and all things are eternal and at one time.

Yet we, who are bound to time, see and learn all things through beginnings and endings.

As spring ends and summer begins, may we see your reflection in this and every summer.

For though you are unchanging and eternal,

there is always more to discover, experience and learn.

Amen

View St. Athanasius Church in The Archdiocese of Chicago - A Journey of Faith

This 352 page book contains two main sections: approximately one third is dedicated to the rich history of the Archdiocese of Chicago from the early years as a mission church to its current status as one of the premier Catholic Dioceses in the World. The second section introduces every parish, starting with City Parishes in alphabetical order and ending with the Suburbs Parishes, in alphabetical order per township. His Eminence, Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I., Archbishop of Chicago has prefaced the book. Over 1,400 color photographs, archival documents, paintings and maps illustrate the rich history of the Catholic Church in Chicago. Each parish biography is highlighted with three photographs representing the exterior and interior of the church and a distinguishing feature that the parish regards as a treasure.

This marvelous book is available in the Parish Office for $35. It will make a beautiful gift for anyone who grew up in the Archdiocese or who values its history.

The Need for Rest

The Bible says that after creating the world, on the Seventh Day, God rested. Rather than because he was tired, God meant to model for us the need to rest and reflect after a job well done. During his ministry, Christ himself would withdraw to a "Lonely Place" resting to refresh his spirit. Today, we have more leisure, but feel more stressed. We have more devices to save labor and time, but panic at the thought of 'getting behind.' Lord, help me remember when we must rest, reflect, and worship on a Sunday, or on a vacation, and that rest is as needed as all other things in our lives to do a good job for our employer, and for God as well.

Working with the Scriptures

July 8, 2007 (Lk.10:1-12, 17-20)

“...for the laborer deserves his payment.”

These words form the basis for one of the foundational principles of Catholic Social Teaching. A worker is expected to put in a fair day's work for a fair day's pay. Notice that there are two parts to that sentence: (1) a fair day's work for (2) a fair day's pay.

Marge is always early. Although her “official” hours are 9-5, she's usually at her desk by 8:45 am and rarely leaves before 5:15 pm. In fact, Marge's boss is so accustomed to her early start that on the rare occasion that Marge actually does come in at 9:00, he gets upset with her for coming in late. On the other hand, Marge's co-worker, Debbie, usually comes rushing in late with some story about traffic or a problem at home. Her stories are so convincing that the boss ends up feeling sorry for her and suggesting that she leave early to take care of whatever emergency is going on! Which worker is giving a fair day's work? What does a fair day's pay look like in this scenario?

Another example. Many Americans are trying to buy only goods produced in the United States, but as more and more bits and pieces of things are manufactured in other countries the words “Made in America” often mean only that the bits and pieces were put together here. Conversely, bits and pieces manufactured here are just as often put together in other countries. Why is this happening? Often it's because labor is cheaper elsewhere. In fact, entire websites are devoted to tracking foreign manufacturers who employ women and under-age children for long hours with few if any breaks under deplorable and unsafe working conditions. What, exactly, is a fair day's work? And how much is a fair day's pay?

As consumers we are, in effect, employers to the world; do we do all we can to insure that laborers receive a fair day's pay? As workers, do we provide a fair day's work? “Behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves”, or at least sometimes it feels that way...

10 Commandments for Drivers

The Vatican has issued a “Ten Commandments” for drivers to keep them on the road to salvation, warning drivers against the sins of road rage, abuse of alcohol or even simple rudeness. The new Commandments for drivers are:

1. You shall not kill.
2. The road shall be for you a means of communion between people and not of mortal harm.
3. Courtesy, uprightness and prudence will help you deal with unforeseen events.
4. Be charitable and help your neighbor in need, especially victims of accidents.
5. Cars shall not be for you an expression of power and domination, and an occasion of sin.
6. Charitably convince the young and not so young not to drive when they are not in a fitting condition to do so.
7. Support the families of accident victims
8. Bring guilty motorist and their victims together, at the appropriate time, so they can undergo the liberating experience of forgiveness.
9. On the road, protect the more vulnerable party.
10. Feel responsible towards others
