Hospitality Highlight: St. A's Lectors

The St. Athanasius Lectors Group currently consists of 25 parishioners who participate in our Sunday and Holy Day liturgies once or twice a month. We proclaim the Old and New Testament readings, and the Prayers of the Faithful. Lectors are trained individually by the coordinators, but occasionally we may have a special group training. Schedules are made up three months at a time. Lectoring is a privilege, assisting in clarifying and spreading the word of the Lord. Our current lectors are Michael Bansley, Rick Blabolil, Steve Carlson, Jane Carney, John Carroll, Tom Cramer, Dan Delaney, Jim De Nardo, Sheila Fenn, Angela Grannon, Bill Harmon, John Labbe, Peggy McCarthy, Tim McPike, Tom McRaith, Barbara O'Connor, Jean Peters, Jude Quinn, Mary Rooney, David Staub, Maurice Ann Sullivan, Chris Talbot, Josie Vorda, Larry Wojcik and Barbara Zapszalka.

Anyone wishing to become a lector should contact Jean Peters at jwp2238@yahoo.com.

Special Collection for Retired Priests This Weekend

This collection is solely for the retired priests of the Archdiocese of Chicago. They receive no funds from the Religious Retirement Collection taken up in December. Those funds go for religious nuns and brothers and religious order priests.

There are 220 Retired Archdiocesan Priests. They represent more than one-quarter of all the priests serving in the Archdiocese. There are currently 18 priests over the age of ninety, 91 priests over the age of 80, and 1 of our priests will be 100 this year!

Normal retirement age is 70 for Chicago priests. 50 retired priests still live in a rectory and assist the parish on a regular basis. Close to 125 retired priests celebrate Sunday Mass weekly, perform marriages and baptisms, and visit the sick in hospitals. Without these dedicated men, many parishes would not be able to offer the full range of Masses and sacraments that is currently offered.

There are two independent living residences for retired priests that are subsidized by the Archdiocese. There is space for 28 retired priests to enjoy communal living with their brother priests in retirement.

25 priests are currently receiving nursing home assistance or have full-time aides coming to their home or rectory.

The priests' pension fund was adversely affected by the economic downturn. Millions of dollars will be needed in the coming years to bring it to appropriate funding levels.

The Archdiocese of Chicago is committed to caring for our retired priests, but we need your assistance. Please help and many, many thanks.

Summer Hospitality after Masses

Parish organizations are asked to sign up for a weekend, which means that Saturday 5:00 pm Mass as well as all Sunday Masses should be covered by your organization's volunteers. Supplies will be stocked in the school kitchen. The sign-up sheet and instructions will be available in the Lincoln Street vestibule.

School Registration Still Open

"The Songs of Harold Arlen" Is a Hit!

The show garners stellar reviews from the Chicago Tribune and the Sun Times!

Ticket sales are brisk for this popular cabaret review of Harold Arlen Songs being performed at the No Exit Café, 6970 N. Glenwood Avenue in Rogers Park. The original 8-week run is 80% sold out. Several more performances have been added in July and August so that more people can see this wonderful, tuneful show. Just call the box office at 800-595-4849. Tickets are $25 on Fridays and Sundays and $30 on Saturdays.

Chicago Tribune: "But when the singing is this strong, and when the performers are this willing to stick their hearts on the line, you feel like you're engulfed by waves of exciting sound. It's acoustic sound too, which makes it all the more thrilling".

Chicago Sun Times: ". . . this revue is so superb on every level that you may find yourself standing in a line that extends down to the Gold Coast. The show's six singers are sublime, the staging (courtesy of director Fred Anzevino and choreographer David Heimann) is ideal, and pianist Steve Carson's musical direction is a model of sophistication with a slew of thrilling harmonic arrangements."

This show is Jeff recommended! The Jeff Awards in Chicago are equivalent to the "Tony Awards" in New York City.

What does it mean to be "Jeff Recommended"?

The designation of "Jeff Recommended" is given to a production when, after the opening night of its run, at least one element of the show was deemed outstanding by the opening night judges of the Joseph Jefferson Committee. The entire production is then eligible for nomination for awards at the end of the season.

Update from Bridget Carney

Hello Father Tom and the entire St. A's community!

I wanted to send a brief update from Fabretto and Nicaragua! I am in my sixth month here in Latin America and the rainy season is upon us. The rainy season is from about May until August and is extremely important, yet detrimental at the same time. In the majority of Nicaragua, the rainy season is a time to work in the fields. Rain is essential for the agricultural process of planting, growing and cultivating and, here in my community, that is generally the only source of income. Our field work at school has just flourished during the last few months and in addition to producing a ton of vegetables, fruits, beans, and corn we are also preparing new areas of land for growth. However, in other ways the rain brings many struggles. The unpaved roads in my neighborhood are ravaged from the rain, making transportation difficult. At school, attendance is extremely down due to both students needing to work for their family in the fields, and also not having dry or clean clothing because with the constant rain there is no way to dry clothes. So the rain is debilitating, but at the same time celebrated! It is an interesting conundrum I continue to think and learn about as I enjoy the slightly cooler climate! Saludos a todos!

Con amor,
Bridget

Gospel for July 25, 2010

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lk 11: 1-13

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread and forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us, and do not subject us to the final test."

And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, for a friend of mine has arrived at my house from a journey and I have nothing to offer him,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked and my children and I are already in bed. I cannot get up to give you anything.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence.

"And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened. What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish? Or hand him a scorpion when he asks for an egg? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

After reading the Gospel aloud, in unison, those gathered reflect on the following questions:

- In this passage, what word, phrase or image struck you?
- How does that speak to you personally?
- How does that speak to our community at St. Athanasius? And to the wider Church?

Conclude by praying the Our Father together.

Scripture Question of the Week

When Jesus speaks about persistence in prayer, he offers examples of bread and eggs, but also of the Holy Spirit. We often pray for objects or outcomes we believe we need, do we remember to pray for the graces we need and wisdom to embrace whatever we receive?

Working with the Scriptures

July 18, 2010 (Gn. 18:1-10a; Lk. 10:38-42)

On July 22 we will celebrate the Feast of St. Mary Magdalene. We really don't know much about her other than that she was present at the foot of the cross and, as the first witness to the Resurrection, is known as the Apostle to the Apostles. She was probably a woman of means (NOT a prostitute, as previously thought) who, along with several other women, provided hospitality to Jesus and the others out of her own resources.

Today's readings also speak about hospitality. It's interesting to note that, while Abraham is praised for his hospitality, Martha is seemingly rebuked for hers. But look closer – Abraham told Sarah to make the rolls and then instructed the servant to prepare the meat while he, Abraham, remained and entertained the strangers. The reward for this gift of hospitality was the assurance that within a year he would have a son. Abraham had, it seems, chosen the better part. But what about Sarah? And the servant? Perhaps it was simply assumed that, in Abraham's culture, women and servants were expected to do the work of hospitality while the men sat and conversed with the visitor.

A very different picture emerges in Luke's Gospel. Here Martha assumes the woman's role of offering hospitality on behalf of both her sister and herself and becomes upset when Mary fails to share in the responsibility. But Jesus reverses the old order. He invites Martha into the conversation! The value of work is no longer to be determined by society but, rather, by the spirit in which it is done.

Today's society says that "real work" means working for pay, yet many women (and some men) are choosing instead to stay home and raise their children. Is their work "real work"? Who has chosen the better part? What does "choosing the better part" mean? Luke seems to be telling us that, for Jesus, the only requirement is that, whatever kind of work we do – paid or unpaid - we do it, as Mary Magdalene did, in conversation with Him.

What kind of work do you do? With whom are you in conversation?
