Welcome Bishop Matthias Ssekamanya

With great joy, the priests, pastoral staff and parishioners of St. Athanasius Parish welcome Bishop Matthias Ssekamanya of Uganda.

Bishop Matthias is the bishop of the Lugazi Diocese located between Kampala, the capital of Uganda and Jinja. His diocese borders notable Lake Victoria. Bishop Matthias is the main celebrant of the 9:30 am Mass Today.

The Diocese of Lugazi is a recently established diocese and Bishop Matthias has worked tirelessly to provide for his people. His new cathedral is a testimony to this. In addition, and most important for us, the Cardinal Nsubuga Memorial Senior Secondary School - funded by the generosity of St. Athanasius Parish, is a sign of vitality and growth for our brothers and sisters who share our Catholic faith in this part of the world. As I have mentioned before, and given what I have seen and experienced in Africa, it is literally a lifeline to young people who desire an education.

Fr. Charles Muhigirwa, who studied at Mundelein Seminary in the Archdiocese of Chicago, has been instrumental in overseeing the construction and developing the curriculum of the school. Fr. Charles has visited St. Athanasius before, and it is my hope that he will make a return visit.

Our world is becoming smaller, and so global. There are heightened tensions between nations, religions and cultures. Fundamentally, as Catholics, we are peacemakers, and people of the Beatitudes. We care for each other. I cannot think of a better way to make a difference in our world than to take interest in this project.

We come then to pray on Sunday. We will come to praise the Lord for what He has done through us to bring us together, Americans and Ugandans; and we ask Him humbly to show us the way to continue in this work if this be His will.

Sincerely,

Do You Want To Find Out About The Catholic Faith?

If any of the following questions stirs your heart or causes you to nod your head "yes", then RCIA might be exactly what YOU are looking for!
(RCIA means: The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

Are you a non-baptized person searching for God and interested in learning more about the possibility of becoming a Roman Catholic?

Are you a baptized Christian of another faith and seeking more information about the Catholic faith and what it means to be a member of a Catholic faith community committed to the mission of Jesus?

Are you already baptized a Catholic but have not yet celebrated the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation, and would like to do so?

If any of these questions stirs your heart or causes a spontaneous "Yes", do not hesitate to call Fr. Rich Sztorc at 847-328-1430, extension 103.

Please Remember In Your Prayers...

A Tour of St. Agnes and the National Museum of Mexican Art

Wednesday, October 22

8:45 am – 2:00 pm

Bus will leave from in front of the church on Lincoln Street

Come and bring your friends for a relaxing and informative tour of St Agnes, "our sharing parish". We have arranged for a tour of both the church and the school in the "Little Village" neighborhood. An added feature of this day will be a visit to The National Museum of Mexican Art (formerly Mexican Fine Arts Center). The Museum presents a comprehensive display of Mexican culture that is "sin fronteras" –without borders. As we travel through the area we will view numerous street murals, a continuing social expression of the Mexican community. The "mural movement" originated in Mexico City in the 1920's and was championed by Diego Rivera. From here it's on to lunch at Nuevo Leon. Mark this day on your calendar as "must do"!

Cost of the tour is $35 per person including lunch at Nuevo Leon.

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you. When John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him; but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him." — Mt. 21:31-32

Working with the Scriptures

September 28, 2008 (Mt.21:28-32)

There's an old saying that says: "The road to hell is paved with good intentions!" I think of it often – especially when contemplating some new diet or exercise plan. I start out with good intentions, but eventually I start finding excuses for not doing whatever it is I originally set out to do. On the other hand, I have friends who think nothing of grabbing an apple for lunch and then go out and walk around the block while they're eating it! These folks never really intend to diet or exercise, it just sort of 'happens'.

Certainly, my diet and exercise experiences could be used when talking about this week's Gospel. But I suspect that there are far better ones.

Like the other day when I overheard someone in a restaurant telling their dining partner that, while they could not ask a person's age when interviewing them for a job opening in their company, they were to make some notation if the applicant appeared to be over 50. Clearly this was not a just workplace practice and I wonder if the person doing the interviewing had the courage not to make that notation.

Or what about the realtor who assured her clients that she would show them any property in which they were interested but somehow managed to 'forget' certain properties, depending on the buyer's race or sexual orientation. Her verbal assurances were admirable, but her actual practices were not.

"A man had two sons." One, when asked to go out and work in the vineyard, said "I will not", but afterwards changed his mind and went." The other replied, "Yes, sir," but did not." One, when asked to discriminate based on age, at first seemed to go along with the request, but later found that he couldn't do it. The other, even though she assured her clients that she would not discriminate, had no intention of respecting the dignity of those who trusted her to assist them.

"Which of the two did his father's will?" I think I'll have to grab an apple, take a walk, and think about that one...

Vinal Van Benthem
