An Inter-Faith Tour of Chicago

Thursday, October 18

8:45 am – 2:00 pm

Bus will leave from in front of the church on Lincoln Street
(Bus is handicapped accessible)

Come and bring your friends for a relaxing and informative tour of Chicago's worship spaces beginning with a guided tour of St. Hyacinth Basilica in the Avondale neighborhood. St. Hyacinth has been prominently featured in books of church architecture, both for its opulence and grand scale in the Polish church tradition. Our tour then takes us downtown to the Chicago Loop Synagogue, a symbol of the Jewish religious presence in Chicago, to view their stained glass windows. From there, it's on to Greektown where we will have lunch. Mark this day on your calendar as "must do"!

Cost of the tour is $35 per person including lunch in Greektown

Deacon Dick Jay – An Appreciation

Two images pop up when I think of Dick Jay: One is of that multi-limbed object suspended above us in our church rafters. The structural engineer in Dick designed this accommodating device for hanging any imaginable liturgical banner or odd-shaped decoration. The other picture of Deacon Dick Jay is a photo you can see in our church vestibule, Dick is visiting Calcutta. He is in a room with his arm around Mother Teresa. They seem comfortable in each other's presence. Here are two of the ways Dick has served us as a deacon for almost a quarter of a century: Fabricating practical solutions by big picture thinking and yet also attending to the uniqueness of the moment.

The calling of a deacon is primarily not up front presiding and preaching, although that can be an important part of the calling. A deacon is a person of faith called to serve the needs of a parish and community in the spirit of the Acts of the Apostles, deacons who first of all served the hungry at table. Over the years Dick has made this a part of his calling as a member of our St. Vincent De Paul group and in his informal "super market" ministries.

I consider Dick as our pastoral staff chaplain. At our staff meetings, where we can so easily become submerged in the details of planning or executing the next parish event, very often Dick easily and naturally invites us to step back and share his big-picture insight and mature wisdom. This is the fruit of a life lived not without struggle, but with a faithful commitment to never stop glimpsing the wondrous flow of God's creation story unfolding around us. This special gift of his prompts us to re-tune our reality to more likely sense this grace-filled world.

Thank you Dick for all the ways you have served our St. A's community. May the One who called you grant us many more years of your presence. Ad multos annos! May you inspire a few to follow your example in the calling as permanent deacon at St. Athanasius.

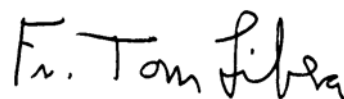

On the Horizon

Our weekend Masses continue to both gather us to worship the Lord and to celebrate the flow of life in our parish. Next weekend, Fr. Matt Foley, pastor of St. Agnes, our sharing parish, will preach at our Masses. I always look forward to hearing a message from this committed and dynamic priest. Next week's second collection will be our annual special effort to raise scholarship funds for St. Agnes School. Your extra measure of generosity is invited.

The weekend of October 20-21, in the spirit of accountable stewardship, our Finance Committee will issue the annual parish financial report while I will give my impressions of the state of our parish. The following week, October 27-28, we will focus on our calling for the stewardship of our time and talent as we highlight some of the opportunities for service and ministry in our parish.

Finally, with Bishop Frank Kane presiding, we will launch a year of celebrating the 70th Anniversary of the dedication of our church edifice with a special Mass of gratitude on Sunday, November 4 at 9:30 am.

In the Lord's Blessings,

St. Agnes of Bohemia Santa Inés de Bohemia

Telephone (773) 522-0142*

Dear Friends at St. Athanasius Parish,

Thank you for welcoming us in so many ways.

Part of our mission at St. Agnes of Bohemia, like your parish, is education. Our school serves a 99% Catholic student body in Chicago's Little Village. We offer high quality education to students--from Pre-Kindergarten through 8th grade. In that respect, we are fortunate to have had a meaningful relationship with you at St. Athanasius Parish.

It is an honor for us to serve the families of Little Village. In so doing, we hear their stories.

One family with an income of $325 a week had a son enrolled at St. Agnes. When the school was no longer able to finance the son's enrollment, the family had no choice but to transfer their son to another school. A remarkably faith-filled family, they continued bringing their son to our weekly school Mass before dropping him off for the start of the school day at his new school. Then, shortly after his transfer, St. Agnes School received a scholarship donation sufficient to meet the boy's educational expenses and welcomed him home again.

Another family had three children enrolled at St. Agnes School. The mother was diagnosed with cancer, which was feared to be spreading to her brain. Her oldest son, during her hospitalization, showed great emotional depth and maturity - well beyond what we could expect from an 8th grader. He took after-school jobs to help support the family and took care of his younger brothers - all the while keeping his grades at honor-roll level. Thankfully, the mother is now recovering from successful surgery, and the boys are doing well at St. Agnes and in high school.

St. Agnes is the rock in our community: a spiritual, educational, and cultural center. We provide our families with opportunities to succeed. St. Agnes is, and must continue to be, an option for families wanting to invest in a Catholic education for their children. Over 60% of our 8th grade class tests above national averages, and 70% of our graduates successfully enroll in Chicago's Catholic high schools - most often at St. Ignatius and Cristo Rey.

The families of St Agnes face many challenges in providing their children with the education they deserve. The average yearly income of parish families is under $25,000. This makes it difficult for many families to afford our tuition, which ranges from $2,475 for one student to $3,575 for a family of three students or more. Our goal is to provide full financial aid to families earning under $30,000 by 2010 and to be a full scholarship school by 2020.

The charity of St. Athanasius parishioners has made many educational and personal futures brighter at St. Agnes. You are part of many family stories. We can never adequately express our gratitude. I hope you will continue to be part of our stories and our futures and thank you for your compassion and your generosity.

Gratefully,

Working with the Scriptures

October 7, 2007 (Lk. 17:5-10)

“We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.” This week’s column finds me preparing to repaint my home office. Obviously, the first thing I had to do was to pick what color I wanted to paint it. I didn’t think that this would be all that difficult – until I walked into our local paint store and saw row upon row of color samples in every imaginable shade of every imaginable color! The clerk must have seen the dazed look in my eyes because she quickly came over and asked if I needed help. “Celery”, I spluttered, “I want to paint my office the color of celery.” We were off and running.

Thankfully, the young woman was very understanding about my difficulty in describing this color that wasn’t quite green but wasn’t quite yellow, either; and she spent the next ten minutes patiently pulling out first this color, then that, until we had something that came close to what I thought I wanted. But she didn’t stop there. Next she suggested that I take a couple of the other colors I had been considering (at least two swatches of each – so that I could stick them up on the wall in different areas of the room and see them under different lighting conditions) home and live with them awhile before deciding. And she did it all with a smile.

Obviously this woman enjoys her work. Because of her willingness to take the time to listen, my initial confusion was relieved and I was soon able to find exactly what I was looking for. When I thanked her she insisted that she likes helping customers and, besides, she was just doing her job.

Like the woman in the paint store, the faithful servants in Luke’s Gospel are just doing their job. But faithful service can sometimes work miracles, and a job done well serves both master and servant. How do we view our work? How do we do what we are “...obliged to do...”? Can those we serve count on us to do our job well?
